Making Media Work for You

The consumer voice is targeted, tangible and tactical. Law suits, recalls, meta-analyses, and indiscernible science flood the news. Leveraging good news and bad news to support your mission - Be a part of the conversation.

Featuring

Ronnie Cummins, Organic Consumers Association and Amy Summers, Pitch Publicity

Food Ingredients are Supplement Ingredients

Will Harris, President American Grassfed Association

Why regenerative matters: The Business Case for regenerative and organic.

Finance for the Future

The market is constantly changing so we’ve assembled a panel of experts to speak to fluctuations, opportunities and unusual developments you need to know and understand.

The Politics Hour: Division and Revision in a Redefined Landscape
